"T'Kopechuck", is the Indian name in Chinook jargon for White River. "White River", is the name for the combined school district which includes Enumclaw and Buckley.

Combining the major activities of two schools four miles apart has not been easy. Combining the energies, and talents of forty students, to produce one annual, where before there had been two, has been no simple matter. All problems have, however, been worked out as equitably and smoothly as possible.

We . . . the editors . . . are proud to present this annual which depicts the classes, activities and history of White River High, its students, clubs, classes and Hornet teams. We hope this annual will, as the years roll by, bring back happy memories of this year . . . 1950.

This first edition of the White River High School yearbook T'Kopechuck is dedicated to the administration and school board of White River for their untiring work and efforts to make the consolidation of Buckley and Enumclaw schools a success.

The bringing together of two groups that have heretofore always been arch rivals is never easy. But the constant efforts of the administration and school board to smoothly pave the way toward this union has been greatly appreciated.

Without the school board and administration unselfishly spending many extra hours working out the problems and drawbacks that the consolidation of two schools create, White River High School could never have been born.

With this in mind, we of the annual staff of the 1950 T'Kopechuck hereby dedicate this annual to the school board and the administration and hope that this annual gives a true and lasting picture of the birth of the school that they worked so hard to create.

Office Girls

BUCKLEY

Unsigned tardy slips and excuses greet Mrs. Baumgardener each morning as a steady line of late students enter the office.

For three years she has been handling the office affairs and training girls to assist her.

The two girls under her supervision are Betty Franich and Eleanor Davis. They earned their position by their skill in typing and ability to work.

One of the many jobs Mrs. Baumgardener of Buckley, did was to keep the accounting books.

ENUMCLAW

Each period under the supervision of Miss Doris Laush and Miss Doris Chaussee, are two outstanding girls who do much of the work that is done in the office. Some of this work is typing, filing, taking attendance, answering the telephone, running the mimeograph and ditto machines.

These twelve girls are carefully chosen for this position. Each girl is selected in the spring of their Junior year to train for this work. They work for about two weeks at the end of the school term and then take over in the fall.

Annual Staff

"Come back here with that glue! Who stole my triangle? Where'd that picture go?" These cries of anguish issued spasmodically from the annual staff room during the days of the big rush when the annual was going to press.

Working to combine the annual as fairly as possible, the staffs of both branches of White River held many meetings. Plans for editing and publishing the first White River yearbook were made at these meetings by faculty advisors, Mr. Rex Waldron and Mr. Dennis Bernard, co-editors, Carol Caverley and Margaret MacDonald, and others on the staff. The name T'Kopechuck, which means White River in Chinook Indian jargon, was chosen after several other names had been discussed and discarded.

Members of the Enumclaw branch staff attended a yearbook workshop conference sponsored by the journalism department at the University of Washington last fall. Members of the staff attended various conferences for editors, business managers, and make-up artists. These conferences were open to discussion of problems and the staff members gained much valuable knowledge.

The T'Kopechuck staff also sponsored a contest for queen of White River, and a Thanksgiving Day dance. The queen candidates were senior girls nominated by the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes. Judged formally by a jury of six impartial judges at an assembly featuring outstanding talent from both branches of White River High, Miss JoAnn Strickland was chosen as "Miss T'Kopechuck", queen of White River.

This year's consolidated Board of Control probably had more decisions to make than any other year previous. During the summer both Enumclaw's and Buckley's Board of Control met together many times in order to discuss thoroughly the many problems put before them.

One of the most important was the choosing of the new school's name. From a list of suggestions the name White River High School was chosen and already well established in both communities.

Naturally new school colors, a new emblem, and team name had to also be decided upon. After many hours in conference the consolidated Board of Control unanimously agreed on "Maroon and Gold" as the official colors. Along with this the "Hornet" team name was chosen.

In order to determine the "Hornet" emblem, school song, and White River's letter a contest was open to anyone desiring to enter with original entries in each division. Bob Kurfurst a senior in Enumclaw branch, entered an inspired "Hornet" carrying a shield and spear which took the first prize for the emblem. The "Maroon and Gold" fight song written by Lawrence Christensen, a local musician, was finally agreed upon and awarded the prize. The style of White River's Athletic letter was much discussed and after many eliminations the award went to Owen Merritt, an Enumclaw business man.

In addition the problem of school dances and awards as dramatics, valedictorian, most active in sports, was put before the consolidated Board of Control. They finally decided that each school would hold their own dances and invite the students from the opposite branch. It was also decided that each branch would hold a separate graduation with individual awards.

Not only did both groups meet together, but also met as an individual unit to carry on business for their particular branch. Mr. Bunt and Mr. Olene, as their advisors, have done a great deal and only through their help and consideration would the Board of Control have had such a successful year.

Torch Honor Society

Going to the Torch Honor Society meeting are Earline Reamy, Doris Louise Olene and Ina Thieman, Buckley officers.

Gene Balint and Art Ford, Enumclaw Torch Honor Society officers are looking for suggestions for the next meeting.

Girl's Club

The Girls Club Cabinet from Buckley with advisors, Miss Miller and Miss Alford are:

Seated are: Norma Allman, Janis Gall, Joann Laffey, and Nancy Swift.

ENUMCLAW

At the beginning of the school year the Senior High Girls' Club Cabinet, Dolores Carpenter, prexy, and Mrs. Hahn, advisor, met to plan a schedule for the whole year. Year books containing this schedule were printed and sold to the girls. This was the first year such a project was completed and it proved to be worthwhile.

Last fall the cabinet went to Highline to attend the annual Girls' Club Conference. It proved to be very interesting and the girls came home with many new ideas.

This year the Girls' Club has done something different. They chose a Girl of the Month. These Senior girls were selected for outstanding qualities in leadership, personality, appearance and participating actively in Girls' Club work. Their picture and write-up appeared in the Hornet. This was a goal all girls worked to achieve.

The annual Girls' Club Tolo was held on February 18. The theme was "Sombrero Serenade". Janet Warren, general chairman and Carolyn Paterson, decoration chairman, worked hard in making it a bright, colorful affair.

Selling ice cream bars and refreshments at games and a cake sale were just a few of the ways the club raised money.

The Mother's banquet was held May 5 honoring the Senior girls and their mothers. Underclassmen served at the banquet.

The Girls Club Officers from Enumclaw busily making decorations for the Tolo are: Dody Carpenter, President, Betty Johnson, Secretary, Gertrude Sonntag, Treasurer, Cathy Hearn, Corresponding Secretary, and Janet Warren, Vice President.

Dolores Carpenter and Sharon Peel, Presidents of the Girls Club from Enumclaw and Buckley are arranging bulletin board in the Girls Club room.

BUCKLEY

Activities for the year 1950 of the Girls' Club at the Buckley branch, began with the selling of hot dogs, pop, and coffee at home games, which proved to be very profitable. Two revolving lights and two smaller spotlights were purchased and presented to the student body by the Club. Much time was spent in revising the constitution to better fit the club's needs. At the suggestion of Miss Alford and Miss Miller, faculty advisors, a member of the cabinet had charge each month of a program for the Girls' Club Assembly. They have had such speakers for the programs as a member of the faculty from the Mary Stone Beauty School who spoke on "Good Grooming"; Mrs. Weaver who spoke on "Boy-Girl Relations"; a speaker on vocational possibilities; and a foreign speaker.

A talent show was presented for the whole student body by the Girls' Club. In December, the cabinet gave a Christmas party for all the Girls' Club with Ida Gonzales in charge which consisted of an amusing style show, games, and the exchange of gifts. In March the Girls' Club sponsored the Tolo Week climaxing with the Tolo Dance. The Girls' Club Cabinet attended the sixth annual Girls' Club Conference held at Highline on December 2. At the conference the girls learned many helpful ideas to use in the local club. In May the annual Mothers' tea was given and at the end of the year the annual Mother and Daughter Banquet was held for the senior girls and their mothers.

Debate

Among the nine debaters who turned out this year were Betty Lou Shaneyfelt, Mickey Reise, Gene Balint, Kathy Hearn, Mary Holdener, and Dona Robison.

Mr. Thomas, advisor for the debate team, accompanied the team for all their debates. A debate held at Enumclaw with Mount Si and Overlake was interesting to the students as well as the debaters who participated.

Projection Crew

ENUMCLAW

In his second year as advisor to Paps Crew, Mr. Gerald Campbell organized the boys into a helpful group. Paps consists of Juniors and Seniors who are the operators of the equipment and Sophomores who are the apprentices.

Paps Crew had many duties to perform around the school. They showed motion pictures in the auditorium and classrooms for instruction and entertainment. In the gym and auditorium Paps prepared the PA system, when needed. Members of Paps announced at home athletic contests and operated the tape recorder for teachers' class work. In order that teachers may give a little authenticity to the radio plays their classes present, Paps sets up a simulated radio station for them.

Since they have finished showing their serial noon movie, Paps has no further specific projects for the rest of the year. All of the money they take in from these movies goes to purchase equipment.

Preparing to take Spring Baseball pictures are: Roger Sullivan, Art Ford, Jim Slayden.

Setting up the projection machine for a movie are: Dick Graybeal and other operators.

BUCKLEY

Working steadily the projection crew showed many educational films to the student body in all departments of the school.

Four students were in charge of the projector each period. The individual crew duty was to check the schedules and notify the teachers when the picture was ready to be shown.

The new members were taught the proper way to operate, oil and maintain the machine by the experienced operators. Mr. Mellish and Fred Maris were in charge of the crew and smoothed out the difficulties that come with running the projector.

With experience comes perfection; after many hours of work the crew passed the operators test and received their reward—a certificate that officially made them masters of the Bell-Howe projector.

Learning the fundamentals of nursing were: Diane Potvin, Barbara Schween, Dolores Thompson.

Nurse's Aids

ENUMCLAW

One of the most cheerful, neat and quiet rooms in the school was the library. Although it seemed to be small it was one of the most outstanding in the League.

The student librarians, a diligent group of girls, were under the direction of Mrs. Laura Hahn. Among their various duties were such things as aiding the students in selecting their material and checking out books. The efficiency with which they accomplished these duties showed their resourcefulness and ingenuity.

There were two assistant librarians on duty six periods a day. They were there to help the students whenever help was needed and have done an excellent job of keeping the library neat and orderly. To Mrs. Hahn and the assistant librarians we say, "keep up the grand work."

As a method of raising money to help support the Club, the boys sold pencils with game schedules embossed in maroon and gold.

The Club, led by Fred Arsanto, organized the paddle-crew which kept wandering students off the field during the game.

The Enumclaw Letterman's Club was organized for award winners in the various sports. The Club was led by Dick Groff and the other elected officers were Jack Henry and Dick LaFromboise.

As a money-raising project, the club members sold food to the spectators at the games. They also sold pencils to the students at school with the game schedules printed on them.

Ivar Johnson, Frank Osborn, Jim Erickson, Dick Groff, and Walt Bruhn, received instructions from Mr. Gerald Campbell, the Stage Crew Advisor.

Stage Crew—Buckley

The play is over! The audience is applauding! The performance was a success! Behind the scenes actors, directors, and prompters breathe sighs of relief. Amid the confusion, boys are carrying ladders, moving furniture and putting equipment away. The Stage Crew is again on the job!

Composed of twenty-five members, and under the supervision of Mr. Wiley Mellish and Fred Maris, the crew has been behind many performances.

During the football season they were responsible for the public address system and the announcing of the games.

When dance time came around they saw that the gym was properly lighted and fixed for sound.

Another assembly—and another job! The stage was set-up for pep assemblies, school plays, national assemblies and various entertainment that was held in the auditorium. Another job was keeping the properties clean and maintained.

To earn a letter for stage and projection work, the requirements are to be a member for at least two years and spend forty hours of work outside school hours.

Bustling with pep and vigor the FHA started their school year early by painting the tables and benches in the cafeteria before the school year opened last September.

In order to make plans for the year four girls were sent to the regional conference for Northwestern Washington held at Everett, Washington. The delegates came back full of many ideas to make this a very active year.

A week before Christmas a combined banquet and party was put on for the teachers. Delicious turkey was served along with all the trimmings. Gertrude Sonntag acted as Santa Claus at the exchanging of gifts.

Additional banquets that the FHA prepared and served included the College of Puget Sound show troupe and the FFA Father and Son Banquet.

Every third Wednesday a meeting was held after school at which the degrees of achievement that can be earned by the members were explained. These covered the Junior Homemaker, Chapter Homemaker and State Homemaker and National Homemaker. The point system which was worked out by Barbara Walzack was put into effect requiring each member to earn a designated number of points in order to remain an active member.

Early in April a State FHA Conference was held at Washington State College located at Pullman, Washington. Five delegates including Joan Carden, Shirley Mead, Dorothy Lokovsek, Janice Barkley and Becky Tyler represented Enumclaw at this convention. The girls conducted a workshop explaining the degrees of achievement. Mrs. Hayes, advisor, accompanied the delegates on their trip. The girls enjoyed a slumber party held in Bohler gym.

HORNET

This years consolidation of the Buckley-Enumclaw schools into one single unit, White River High School made it necessary to make a few changes in the publication system of the school paper.

The bi-monthly "HORNET" was advised by Mr. Symonds of Enumclaw and Mr. Boehlke of Buckley. The news was combined from both schools for the HORNET. For their own local news the students of Buckley branch continued their paper, the BUCKLONIAN, and the Enumclaw Branch continued the HI MERCURY.

Editors of the Hornet were Betty Twitchell from Buckley and Dick Lafromboise from Enumclaw.

BUCKLONIAN STAFF

After learning the various fundamentals of journalistic writing, the members of the class began to specialize in feature writing, sports writing, editorial writing, and news reporting.

The Staff is as follows: Co-Editors—Betty Malone, Donna Baker; Make-up Editors—LaRue Bogle, Joanne Laffey; Feature Editors—Sharon Peel, Bob Cummings; Boy's Sports—Don Nicholson; Girl's Sports—Mary Lou Karpinchik, Joan Poch; Proof Readers—Chuck Hodder, Charles Steiner; Exchange Editor—Ida Gonzales; Typist—Betty Twitchell; F. F. A. News—Dick Graybeal; Reporters—Fred Arsanto, Duane Bell, Wayne Meyer, Ted Nelson.

The Journalism class started a project to build a fund for the Journalism class to pay for having illustrations printed in the Bucklonian. The project was started with a Magician show for the student body and later a sox dance.

Four members of the class, Betty Twitchell, Donna Baker, Dick Graybeal, and Don Nicholson attended the Pacific Slope School Press Clinic at the University of Washington on March third and fourth.

Band

Seated on the stage of Enumclaw Branch was the White River High School Band assembled for a photograph in Concert formation.

White River High School Band of Enumclaw

The band this year established a new standard of high quality performance. The band consisted of 80 members and presented its annual Winter concert February 23, 1950. This was the first concert appearance in their new uniforms. The Spring concert was presented in April.

The band also participated in the Puyallup Daffodil Festival on April 1st. At the beginning of the year the band participated in the Puyallup Fair.

Chorus

The vocal music departments of White River High School participated in many interesting and varied programs. These entertaining singers sang for their fellow students and the community and many other organizations besides traveling to perform before the assembled student bodies in Renton and Highline . . . as a feature in an exchange assembly agreement, within the Puget Sound League.

The year was marked by lots of fun and hard work. Miss Thelma Freeman, inspiring director of the Enumclaw branch, was responsible for the high degree of excellency attained by the chorus during the 1950 year. The chorus of the Buckley branch, according to jovial Mr. Don Brewer, deserve a pat on the back for its splendid cooperation and excellence in performance for the past season.

MIXED CHORUS (BUCKLEY)

Finding they didn't have to join the navy to hit the high "C's", the mixed chorus this year soon got in shipshape condition. Strains of "Falling in Love with Love", "Desert Song" and "In an Old Dutch Garden" were heard coming from the music room where the forty-nine members of the Mixed Chorus were beginning practice for the Christmas concert. Although hindered by a lack of boys at first, more were initiated into the art of warbling peppy songs and sentimental ballads as the year went on. Many members participated in the festival chorus at the solo contest which was held at Highline. Sharon Peel, a talented member, sang at the annual assembly and the solo contest, where she made a very fine rating. Under the patient leadership of Mr. Brewer they sang their way through assemblies, the Christmas program, and their last performance of the year, the Spring Contest.

MIXED CHORUS (ENUMCLAW)

The Enumclaw branch of the White River Mixed Chorus was composed of sixty selected students. These students were chosen by taking voice tests, and indicated a desire to participate in active music group.

Some of the outstanding events were the annual Christmas program presented as an evening performance before an enthusiastic audience and also for a unit of the United States Army in training in the vicinity.

Buckley and Enumclaw students worked hard on presenting exchange programs at Renton and Highline. The Spring Concert in which the chorus participated in was a memorable occasion.

Bob Estby, Jackie Ellingson, Kay Larum, Dick Cromoga, Bob Poutt, and Bill Josie participated in the solo contest held at Highline. These people deserve a lot of credit as they all did very well as indicated by their ratings. The Choraleens also received a high excellent rating at the same contest.

FOOTBALL REVIEW

Consolidation brought forth many problems in the athletic field. Coaches Stricherz, Ames, and Campbell had the job of putting together a team from these two schools. The material consisted largely of Sophomores and Juniors, of which 21 out of a squad of 27 members will be back next year. Winning is important, but more than winning was the task of getting these boys to play together as a unit. The spirit, feeling, training, and attitude of the squad was very good.

White River—13

The first game saw the Hornet team down a stubborn Marysville team. Inexperience and mistakes showed up in this game. Sambilla scored both touchdowns, one on a 54 yard jaunt.

Marysville—0

White River—6

Without the services of West, 210 lb. fullback, the Hornets lost their first Conference game. A much improved ball club held Highline scoreless the first half only to see Loken rip off big yardage and two touchdowns in the second half. Sambilla ran the kickoff back 78 yards. Romberg and York were outstanding on defense. The Hornets ended up on the 4 yard line.

Highline—13

White River—7

White River upset a highly favored Lake Washington team. The Kangaroos scored on the second play after recovering a fumble. Sambilla scored from 32 yards out and West bucked the extra point for victory. Blanusa and Romberg were outstanding on defense.

Lake Washington—6

White River—14

A keyed bunch of Hornets battled a fired bunch of Trojans for 42 minutes before scoring their first touchdown. West's power, and the running of Sambilla and Hodder was too much for the Trojans. West scored all 14 points.

Auburn—0

White River—14

The Hornets fought hard and clean, but were downed in the last three minutes of play. Coates, outstanding back, broke loose on a 53 yard run to beat the Hornets.

Kent-Meridian—19

White River—6

Hornets again fell to high spirited Warriors. Clover Park showed the best line of play up to date for the opponents. Bad breaks and lack of spirit were big factors in the defeat.

Clover Park—7

Kneeling: Ames, Managers Christoph and Mahlon, Sahm, Blanusa, Wynalda, Olson, Mariotti, Frederick Krainick, Morris, Henry, Val Krainick, Symonds, Fred Krainick, Furnish, Cummings, and Managers Malgarini and Mitchell.

Football Banquet

The finish of the football season brought something old and something new into light. It was the annual football banquet but the first one under the new White River school. A very fine Toastmaster, Dr. C. V. Englund who introduced the speakers and the guest speaker for the night, Howie Odell, head football coach for the University of Washington. Then the toastmaster introduced Howard McKee and Bob Demko, first winners of the Inspirational award from Enumclaw and Buckley, who in turn awarded it to this year's winner by vote of his teammates, George Blanusa. A very fine dinner was had by all.

White River—27

Renton—7

For the first time of the season, the Hornets played as a unit. Blocking and tackling paved the way for victory. Mental attitude also played a large percentage in winning. Defensive play of Romberg and Balint was outstanding. The hard running of West, Hodder, and Sambilla on new plays well executed was the high point of the evening affair. This was Renton's first conference defeat.

White River—14

Sumner—19

In a muddy brawl, the Hornets still showed good football, though falling to a highly favored Sumner squad which loses 16 Seniors, 10 of them regulars. A fumble and two 15 yard penalties for running into the kicker were costly for the Hornets. West's 84 yard run was the outstanding play of the game.

White River—7

Puyallup—20

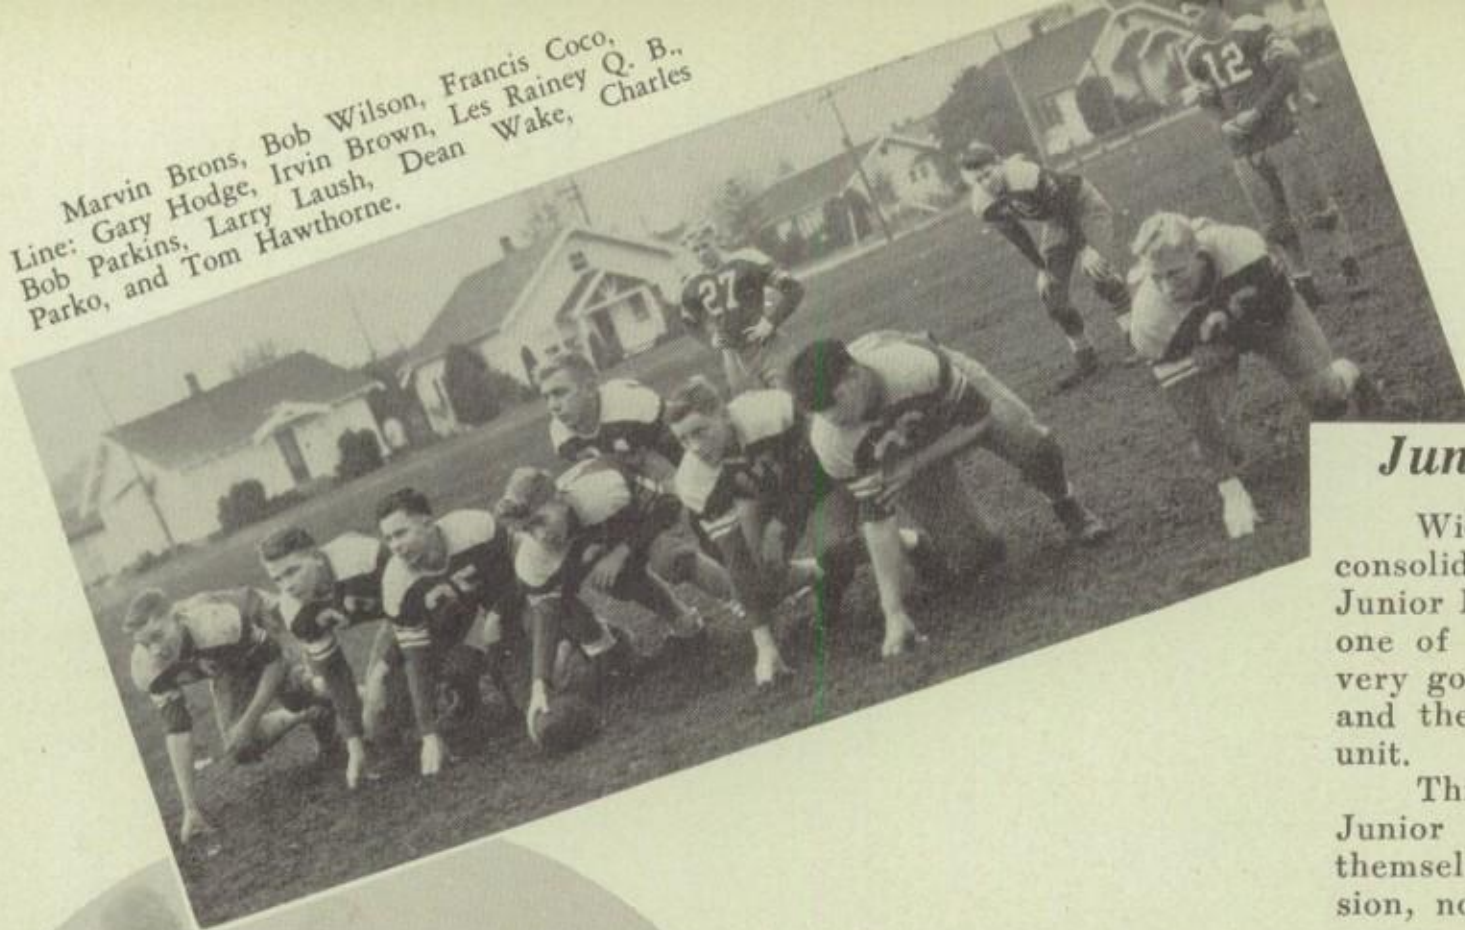

Playing the champions to a stand-still for 3 quarters and 3 minutes, the Hornets finally had to give in to a powerful Viking team. Good clean hard blocking and tackling on both teams highlighted the evening's play. The Hornets led 7 to 6 with 9 minutes to go. Rockstead, Marcoe, Names, and Ball were big guns for the Vikings, while all of the Hornets turned in good performances.

White River—20

North Central—6

A determined Hornet outfit downed the favored Spokane Indians. The Indians, using a Split-T out-downed the Hornets 15 to 12. Hodder's 60 yard run behind good blocking was the outstanding play. Pass catching by McGee and Blanusa made the passing attack click. The Hornets will have 21 of the 27 players back, losing only 6 Seniors.

Junior High Football

With Buckley and Enumclaw consolidating they developed a Junior High Football team that was one of the best. The feeling was very good between the two schools and they pulled together as one unit.

This season the White River Junior High football team found themselves among the upper division, not taking a back seat from anyone. With players such as Radliff, McCauley, Ed Wilson and a few others the first White River Junior High football team was a success.

Mid. Picture: Jerry Stroup, Bob McCauley, Gary Radliff, Loren Franklin, Jim Konoske, Jerry Sonneson, Jerry Carlson, Ed Wilson, Jerry Rogers, Tom Robinson, and Don Blakeley.

Making up the third thru fifth strings and also greatly contributing to success of the squad were as follows:

First row: Jerry Moriarty, Houston Malatesta, Jerry Piersall, Duane Burnett, Keith Radakovich, Jack Craig, Jim Moore, Ronald Jensen, Wayne Nachtsheim, and Bob Franklin.

Second row: Eugene Renner, Jim Hawthorne, Lyle Carlson, Don Kovacevich, Jim Morris, Bob Pierce, Richard Hubber, Walter Gentila, Arnold Rengstorff, Marvin Sather, and Frank Welch.

Junior High Basketball

Junior High Basketball

The Junior High Basketball team, consisting of both Enumclaw and Buckley students had an active schedule this year in which they won five games and lost seven.

Even though they lost seven games they fought hard and gained much experience which will be valuable in the years of basketball to come.

Coach Hardtke thinks that next year's outlook is decidedly bright and though he will be losing such players as McCauley and Radliff he will be gaining many new boys who may, in the future years, be outstanding.

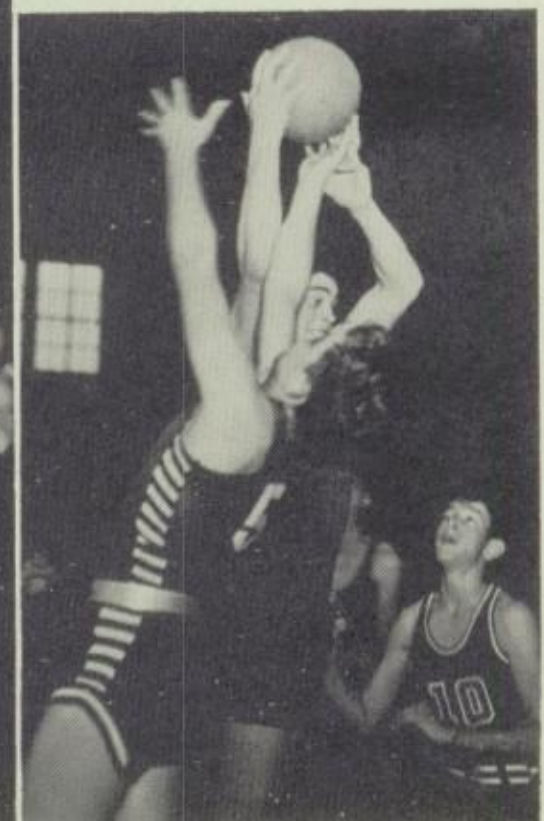

Standing: above was the second string, Harold Hickenbottom, Jim Konoske, Marvin Brons, DeWitt Reise, Richard Hubber. Kneeling: Roger Rhodes, Jim Hawthorne, John Stovner.

Hiom tips one up again.

Kent-Meridian 31, White River 44—The White River squad again won by a wide margin; beating a scrappy Royal team 31-44.

Puyallup 37, White River 35—The Hornets played fine ball along with the Viking team, but lost the heartbreaker in the remaining seconds when Puyallup sunk a long field goal to win.

Renton 40, White River 42—Again the squad came on the floor determined to win and did but not until after Renton put up a stubborn fight and 2 overtimes were played.

Lake Washington 29, White River 28—Lake Washington defeated White River at Enumclaw by a 29-28 count. It was a close well-played game by both teams.

Auburn 35, White River 28—In one of the poorest played games for White River this year Auburn defeated the Hornet squad 35-28.

Highline 42, Enumclaw 35—Highline journeyed to Enumclaw to meet the Hornets. They left on the long end of a 42 to 35 count. Highline played exceptional ball that night.

Lake Washington 37, White River 32—White River, leading all the way, could not stop the Kangaroos in the last minute scoring session.

Auburn 54, White River 51—In the last game of the season the Auburn Trojans and the White River Hornets met in an exciting game. It was close all the way with the Trojans taking it by a 54-51 count.

The season has not been successful as far as winning goes; but the Hornets have played good ball for their first season together. The Hornets lost three valuable players in Lafromboise, Hodder, and Blanusa . . . graduating seniors.

Skiing

For the third year in a row, the Enumclaw district has placed a candidate in the Greater Seattle Ski Queen contest. Two years ago, Sue McKay won the title of King County Ski Queen at the Milwaukee Ski Bowl. Last year, Marcella Koshak won the title of South King County queen and was then named Greater Seattle Ski Queen. With this honor she received a free trip to the Minneapolis Winter Carnival. This year, White River High's candidate was petite, blond Vernes Hanberg. After a close vote Vernes was named South King County queen in ceremonies at the Bowl and crowned by Ski Club vice-president Art Ford. Besides being ski queen, Vernes is also secretary of Ski Club and of the Student Body.

The Ski Club was organized two years ago in the Enumclaw branch of White River. The sport has gained rapidly in popularity since then. Last year a ski meet was held with Highline, and after a close race the local team won. In a ski race held at Cayuse Pass last year that was set up by local ski experts, Terry Cooper won the boys' advanced race; Jack Henry, the boys' beginners' race; and Donna Robinson, the girls' open race. Taking over Dean Duncan's position as Ski Club president of last year was Ivar Johnson, popular senior boy. Extremely bad weather and slides on the track rather hindered skiing this year and shortened the season. Nevertheless, the more enthusiastic skiers went every chance they had in order to improve their skiing ability.

Mr. McGee demonstrated the correct golf grip to Norma Allman, Joyce Parlari, Janet Lee Moeller, and Joyce Nearhood.

Two years ago, golf joined the roster of sports in E. H. S. Since it was a new sport in school and Enumclaw lacked a golf course few of the members of the golf team had much experience at the game.

With the graduation of the few experienced golfers on the team, last year's team was left with inexperienced fledglings. Although they didn't win any of their matches, the team gained a lot of experience.

This year, Mr. Clyde McGee took over as golf mentor. Starting turnouts in the fall instead of the spring, work began toward getting a team in shape since several fall matches had been scheduled. However, the new White River golf team won all of its matches without hitting a shot. This strange situation occurred when the schools with which the matches were scheduled were unable to get a team together and were therefore forced to default.

This spring, golf turnouts were held again. With the completion of the new Enumclaw Golf Course, those turning out will be able to get more actual experience than they have had in the past. Although the golf team was comparatively inexperienced in comparison to their opponents, the kids gamely play their best in each match.

Track

Track hopefuls for the 1950 W. R. H. S. track team were seated in the gym to have their pictures made. They are as follows: First Row: Don Beech, Gordon Fletcher, John Palmer, Jack Furnish, Jack Boere, Leonard Signani, Duane Wilcox, and Don Schwenn.

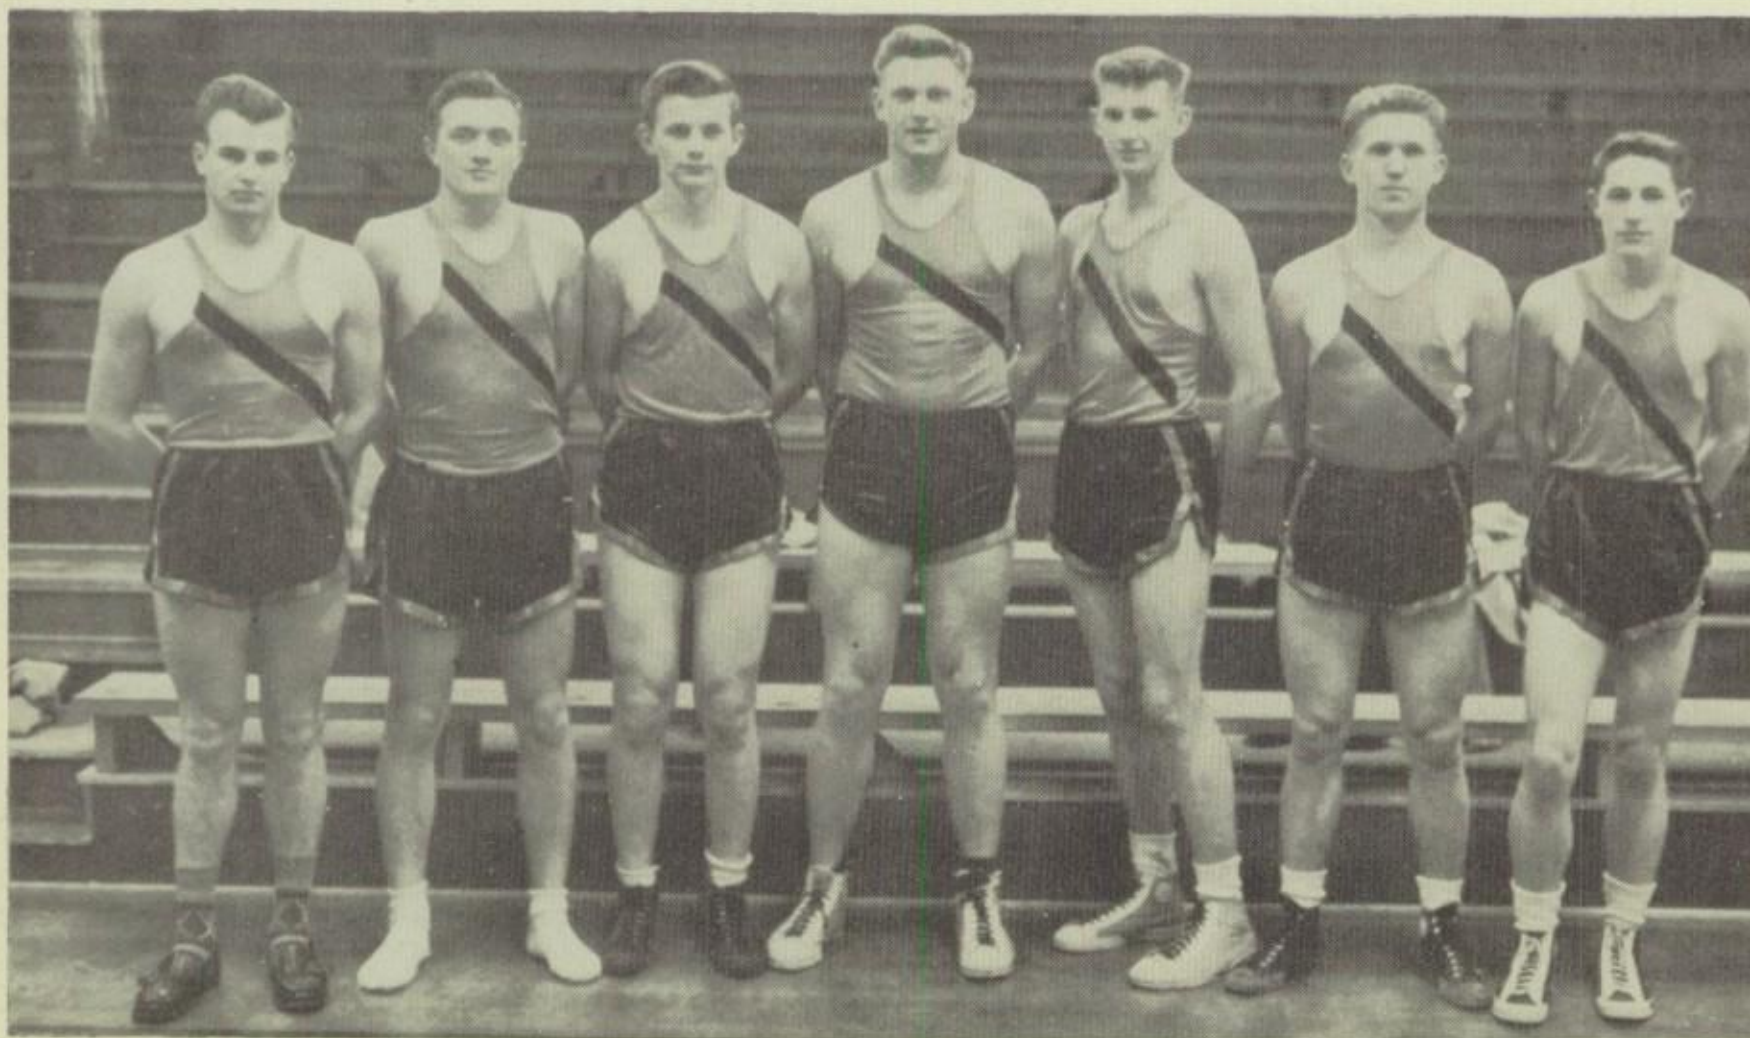

Second Row: Mr. Stricherz, track coach, Gary Sambila, Dick McGee, Ivan Hickenbottom, Noel Blessing, Monte Hase, Howard Larson, and Bob Dancoisne.

HORNET CINDER MEN

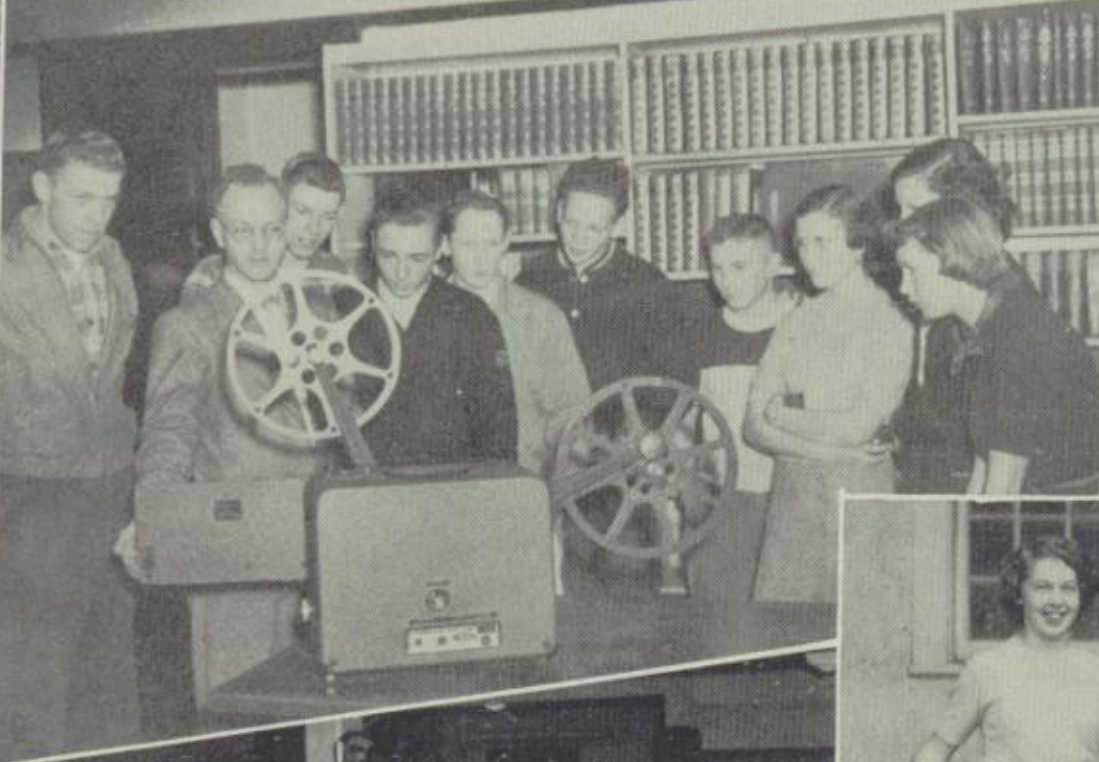

The White River Track Team turned out very fine with its seven returning lettermen from last year, Dick Groff, Fred West, Dick McGee, Jim Symonds, Jack Boere, Gary Sambilla, Bill Mueller, who were the mainstays and point getters in the Hornet Track team. With a tough schedule, triangular meets, and the night invitational track meet, the boys had an active year.

"Off a Pewter Platter" was the first play to be presented by the Enumclaw Branch of White River. It was about the Dorn Family and all its troubles. The whole family was crazy about entering contests. All except Debby, she was very sophisticated and wanted the rest of the family to be so too.

"Arsenic and Old Lace" was the play chosen by the seniors as their class play.

It was about two old women who had killed twelve men with arsenic and buried their bodies in the cellar. The people of the town thought them to be very respectable until they dug up the bodies.

Dramatics

The Ghost Wore White, was a mystery about a family who moved into an inherited house. The Ghost in White was supposed to keep them from finding some very important papers that in the end sent a thief to jail.

"It Happened Next Tuesday", the all school play, was a semi-serious, up-to-the minute play based on the problems and decisions that are confronting our country today.

"Off A Pewter Platter"
"Brothers can be so sweet at times!!" Derby (Aileen Pittenger) exclaims as her brother (Keith Odell) hangs around when her boyfriend (Leon Hobbs) comes to see her.

Mingled feelings of joy and yet sorrow are with the cast as they stop for their last picture, proclaiming the end of their hard work . . . and fun. Mrs. Postler holds the roses, pearls and candy given to her by the grateful cast.

ENUMCLAW

Starting out the year right, the sophomore class had its first dance, Barber Shop Hop. Which proved to be a very unusual dance, having Barber Poles and striking quartet pictures, amidst red and white crepe paper streamers.

Phyllis Holmes, sophomore class prexy, nominated Lorraine Sather as decoration chairman and Bob Poutt as co-chairman. Rita Kramer was nominated for advertising chairman, Becky Tyler for programs, Tom Cunningham for clean-up, and then to keep it organized she chose a sub-chairman for each study hall.

The sophomore class also had some very active football players. Jack Furnish running the length of the field for a touchdown tying up the game, kept the crowd on the edge of their seats.

Bob Dancoisne was one of the letter winners in basketball, being on the first team. Fred and Fredrick Krainick, Jim Gard, and Gary Barkus, were letter winners on the second team.

Beryl Duncan, Shirley Smoke, Joyce Thompson, Clarine Hansen, Vonda Stanhope, Barbara Board, and a few other sophomore girls participated in the basketball game with the junior girls given for the entire student body. They lost by a few points.

Trying very hard the class succeeded in winning the pep jug three times, and had a lot of fun doing it. The class president Phyllis Holmes had to lead the sophomore section in a yell at one of the pep assemblies, and it proved to be very entertaining.

In the series of junior high plays the sophomore class decided it should do something so the class put on a little skit called "Three's A Crowd". Carol Johnson, Billy Absher, Bob Poutt, Ben Graves and Becky Tyler held the leading roles.

This year in the Christmas assembly the sophomore girls were red roses dancing in a flower shop. Kay Larum was Snow White and sang, "Some Day My Prince Will Come." Bob Estby sang, "Only a Rose", and Dick Cromoga sang, "Song of Christmas".

The float consisted of Auburn Trojans bowing down to the Enumclaw Tigers.

In the following homecoming assembly Donnie Hoffman, Dorothy Mahlon, Irene Hash, Greta Holm, Pat West, and Dody Rogers, participated in the winning girls club skit.

BUCKLEY

Fifty students proudly walked into the auditorium and took their seats in the Sophomore section. Many of them have taken part in the school activities.

Every class is always excited about their first dance. The preparations for the Sophomore Hop were filled with enthusiasm. "Autumn Dreams" was the chosen theme and was carried out artistically by Janice Nielson and her efficient committees. Janice was also Vice President of our class.

There were happy expressions on the faces of Theresa Doherty, Nancy Swift, Elaine Borell, Delores Renner, Barbara Rinell, Audine Harbor, Earlien Reamy, Charlene Donati, Deane Madden and Lynn Anderson when they saw their names added to the Honor Society list.

Darrell Sahm was the only Sophomore turning out for football, but Dave Williams, Pete Zderich, and Darrell made a place on the second string basketball team.

Much energy and activity was displayed by the Sophomore members of G.A.A. Those turning out were Nancy Swift, Joan Emerson, Anne Fraley, Velma Shelton, Barbara Rinell, Ruth Kepka, Juanita Bock, Betty Gonzales, Earlien Reamy, Audine Harbor and Delores Renner.

F. F. A. was just as important to the boys as G.A.A. was to the girls. Don Brewer, Raymond Hatch, Andy Dieringer, Clyde Nelson, Larry McDonald, Dale Smith, Ronald DeMuynch, Gene Maris and Larry Bunker were kept busy with their projects of cattle or swine; also doing forge and wood work and pruning and spraying.

Behind the production of the class Pep Assembly were Don Brewer, President, and Mr. Litvinenko, Advisor. Also giving their assistance were Tom Osborn, Secretary and Elaine Borell, Representative. This assembly was one of the last activities the Sophomore class took part in as a whole.

The class of "51" of the Enumclaw Branch of White River have had a varied background. As sophomores the class won the best assembly award, and won the pep jug for the year 1949. Other officers besides Gary Sambilla as President were Jack Henry, Vice-president, Connie Colvin, Secretary, and Jerry Geertsen, Treasurer.

Four Juniors participated in, "Youth Views the News", a radio program from KOMO Radio Station in which the students expressed their opinions on such subjects as the coal strike, Berlin youth rally, and slot machines.

The theme of the Junior Prom held on March 24, was "Up In Central Park" and Ivy Cozart's band from The College of Puget Sound supplied the music. The dance chairman was Jean Lockridge; Dorothy Lokovsek as Decoration Chairman provided a setting for dancing which consisted of park benches, spring flowers, yellow and white crepe paper ceiling spotlighted in green by a picturesque wishing well as a centerpiece.

A music festival was held at Highline on March fourth at which several members of the Junior class received recognition. Dona Robison, who played the saxophone, rated a superior.

The Choraleens, nine girls that have been formed into a singing group, rated excellent. Seven of these girls, Jackie Ellingson, Mary Holdener, Virginia Toman, Alice Ghiglione, Janet Warren, Barbara McDaniels, and Cynthia Stanton, are from the Junior Class. Jackie Ellingson also sang a solo and received a good rating.

Jackie Ellingson, Virginia Toman, Janet Warren, and Barbara McDaniels made up a quartette called, "Three J's and a B." They sang mostly Barbershop melodies.

Mr. W. Warner Thomas has given much time and help as the Junior Class Advisor.

BUCKLEY

An active schedule was planned by the Junior Class as the group participated in a variety of sports and activities.

Playing first string football were Don Romberg and Arnold Olsson.

While the boys were busy with football, the girls won the championship in Volleyball. Norma Allman, Joyce Parlari, and Pat McCasland were the star players.

The Music Department was well represented by Juniors. Eleven turned out for Band and Glee Club and fourteen for Mixed Chorus. This class had one organization no other one had—a class band, consisting of Junior members of the school band. An Ensemble was composed of 13 girls, making their first appearance at the Junior Assembly on March 17. This program was headed by Joyce Hamilton and followed the St. Patrick Day spirit. A violin solo by Audrey Cannon was the entry in the Solo Contest held at Highline.

Scenes and lines of "The City Slicker and Our Nell" were learned by Darlene Ranch, Norma Allman, Pat McCasland, Edwina Dennis and Don Fraser. Behind the scenes were Audrey Cannon and Margaret Van Hoof who held the job as prompters.

Joyce Parlari, Norma Allman and Inez Thieman belonged to the Girls' Club Cabinet while Allen Madden did his part in Boys' Club.

The event of the year was held on April 14. The decorations for the Junior Prom were carried out with Norma Allman and Don French as dance chairmen.

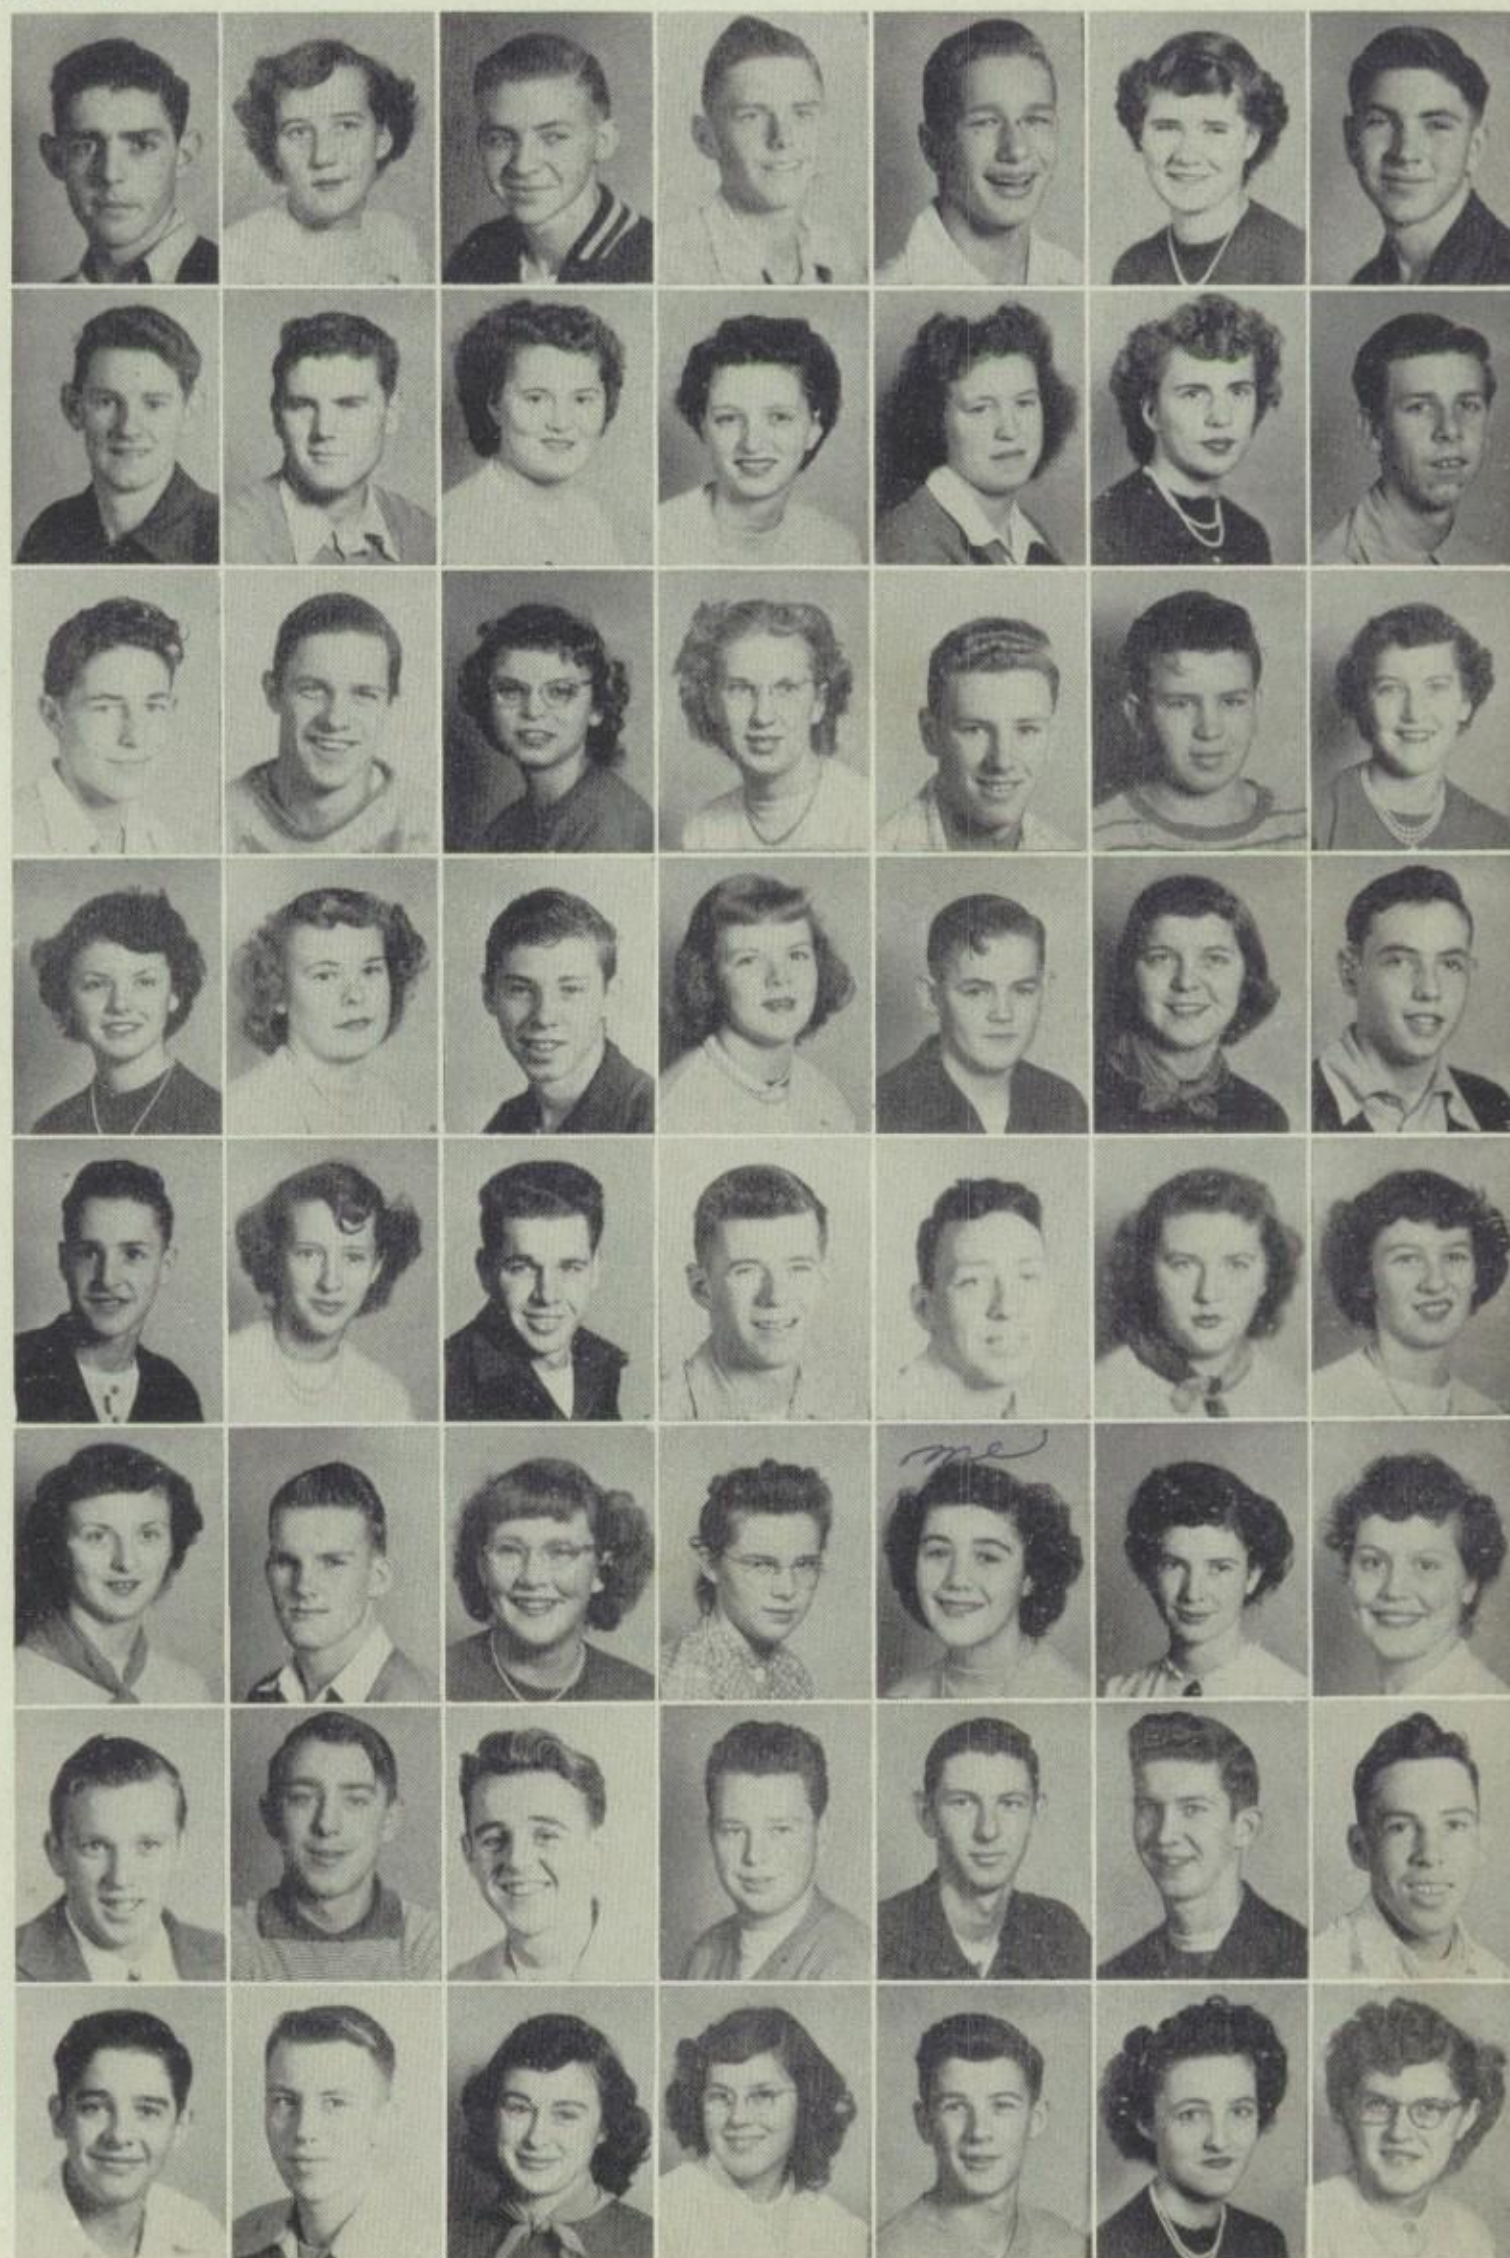

At the basketball turnouts were Arnold Olsson, Jim French, Duane Bell, Don French and Allen Madden.

A lot of time and energy was given by Connie Stanton who helped lead the cheering section.

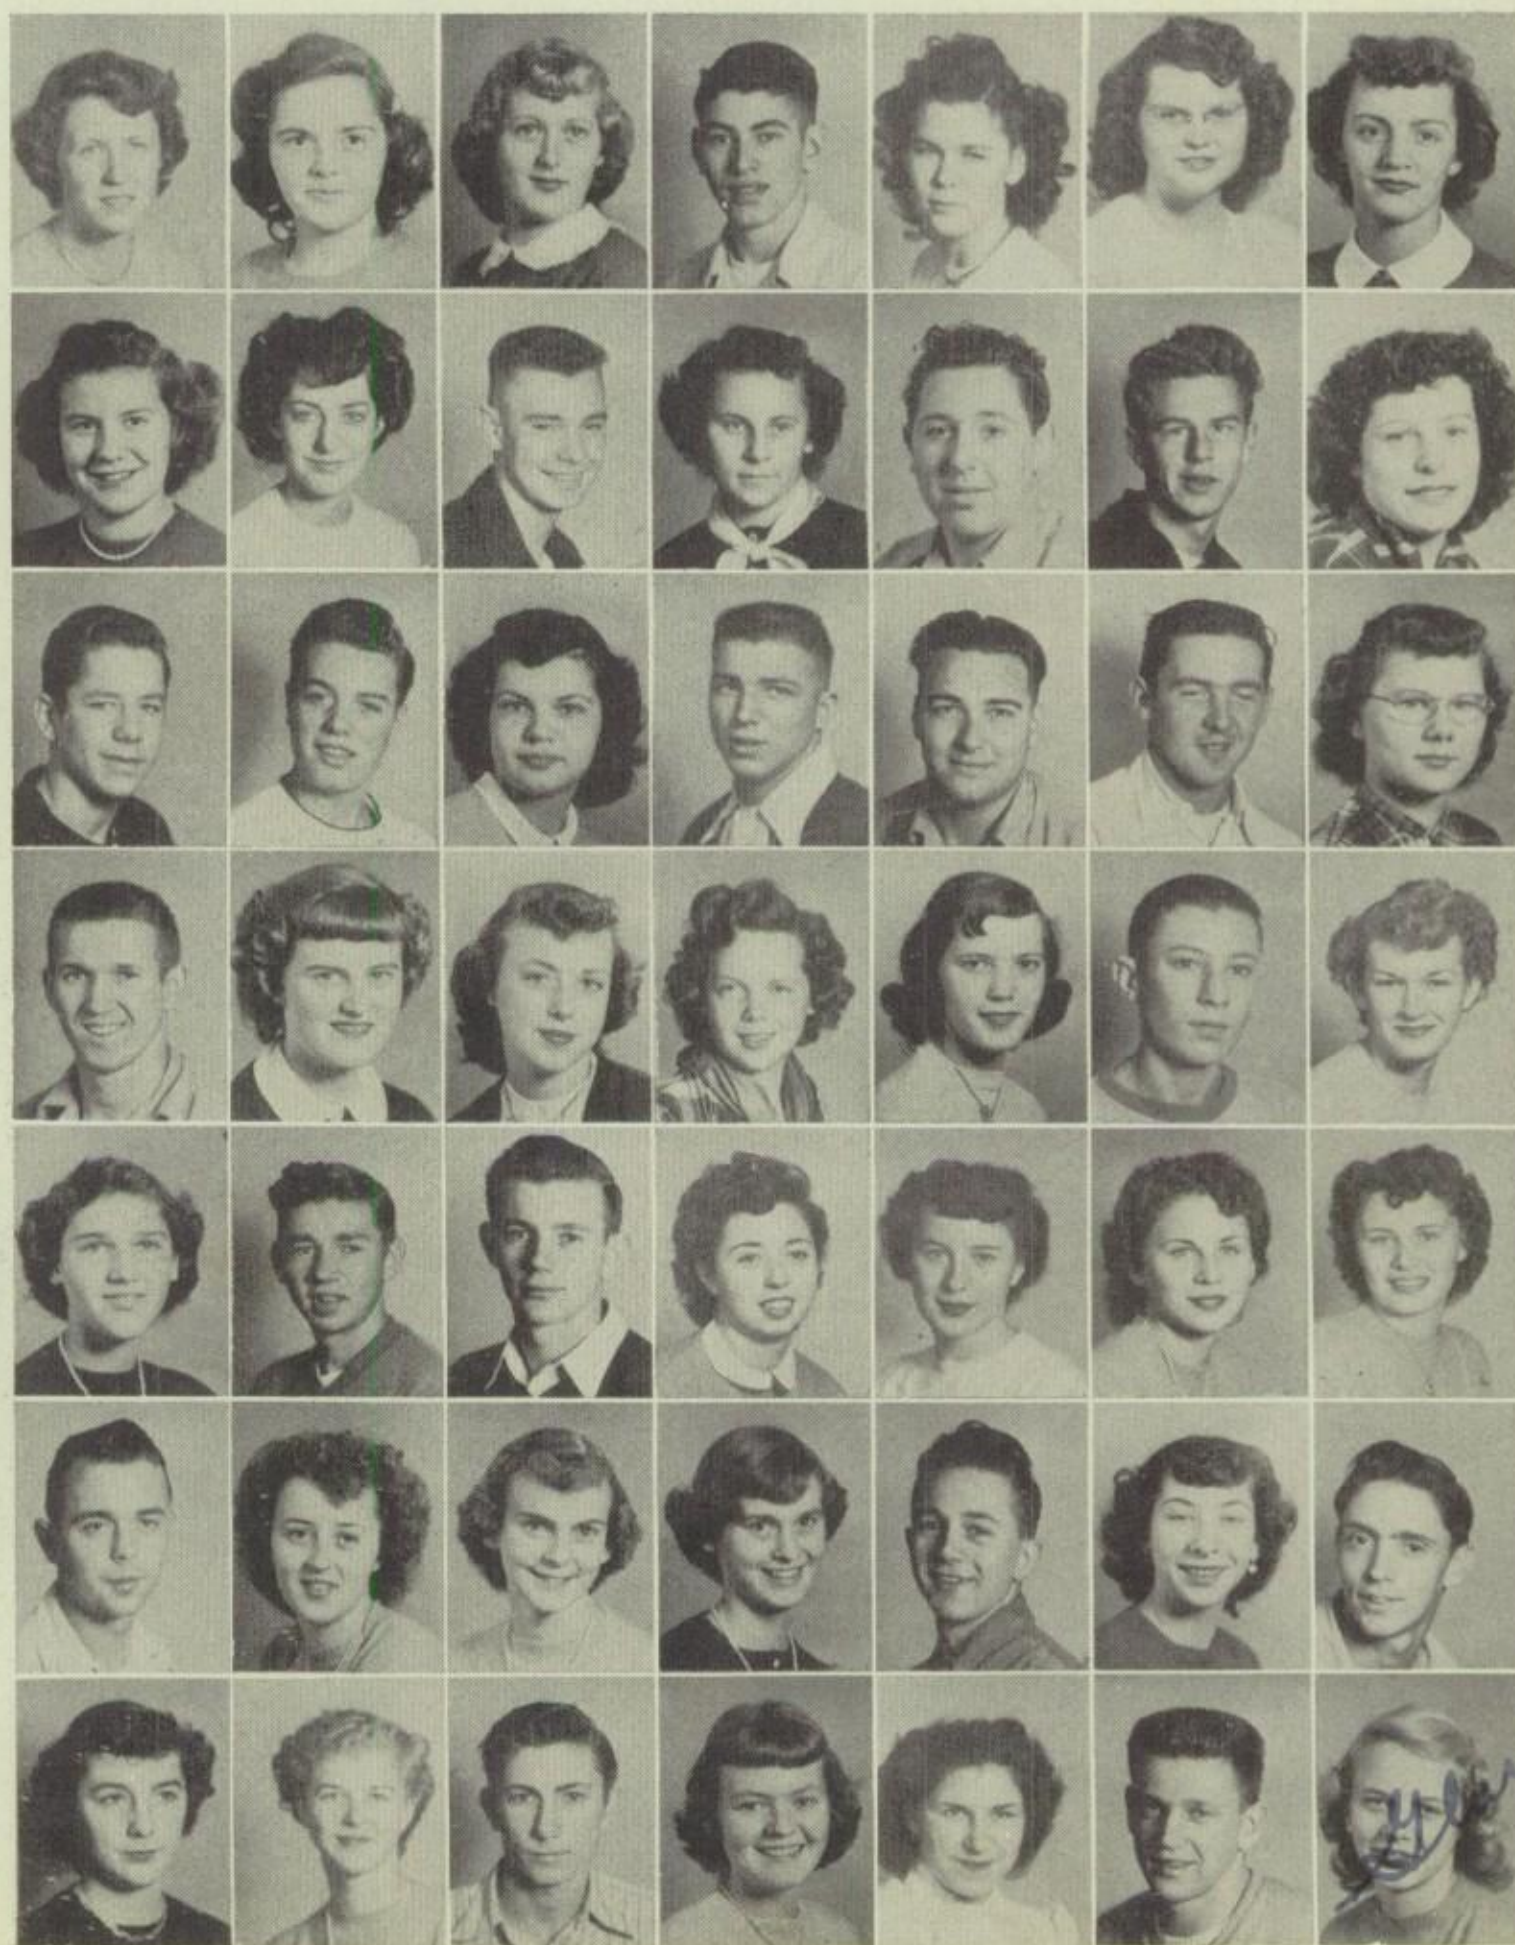

Included in the Student Body Officers were Arnold Olsson and Larry Renner. Members of that organization were Inez Thieman, Class President, and Joan Demko, representative. Other class officers were Patsy Parr, Vice President and Darlene Shane, Secretary.

The Junior were again given a chance to show their acting ability. On March 31, "It Happened Next Tuesday" was presented. Darlene Ranch, Joyce Parlari, Norma Allman, Mike Hander, and Jerry Lehman had leading parts. Ina and Inez Thieman were in charge of costumes; Bob Cummings, props; Bette Jeanne Borell, prompter; Darlene Shane, Edwina Dennis, advertising; and Audrey Cannon, Joyce Hamilton, Connie Stanton and Pat McCasland in charge of make-up.

For Betty Johnson, Enumclaw Senior class guide, filing office slips is an everyday job.

BUCKLEY

After twelve years of struggling and pushing through mountains of books and endless assignments, forty-one students of the class of 1950 have finally reached the goal to which they have looked for so long—graduation.

In the fall of 1946 sixty students took their place as Freshmen in B. H. S. One of the first things they did was to present their assembly which was based on Arthur Godfrey's Talent Scout Show. Two student, Chuck Hodder and George Blanusa, made an excellent showing on the football team. Barbara Morse and Doris Louise Olene entered the solo contest at Everett, making very fine ratings.

As Sophomores the students continued their participation in many school activities. With Chuck Hodder as president, the year began with the Sophomore Hop featuring "Turkey in the Straw" as its theme. Ten members represented the class in Honor Society. With the end of football season, Chuck Hodder, due to his brilliant offensive and defensive playing, was honored with a position on the All-Conference team.

Upon entering their Junior year, still more ambitious students entered into the extra-curricular events. Holding the guiding reins was George Blanusa and lending a helping hand was Donna Baker, vice-president. Donna was also elected chairman of the Junior Prom. Gary Chalberg, Fred Maris, and Ed Goodell all were officers of the F. F. A. Ed became president of it in his senior year. Beverly Rodia was one of the Princesses for Buckley's first Homecoming and was chosen as an attendant in the "Miss T'Kopechuck" contest the next year. Many girls were active in G. A. A., including Jan Gall, Joan Poch, Ida Gonzales, Pauline McCasland, Betty Franich and LaRue Bogle.

This year the Seniors were under the direction of Mr. Bernard, who has been their advisor for the past two years. Working with him, was their president, Janet Hannus, vice-president, Don Nicholson, secretary, Margaret MacDonald, and representative, Fred Maris. One of the first events of the year was the get-together party given by the Buckley Seniors for the Enumclaw Senior class. In his fourth year of superb playing on the gridiron, George Blanusa was given a position as end on the All-Conference first team. The Senior class also presented its play "The Ghost Wore White" which was very well received. The Senior ball and class picnic ended a wonderful year. With the college conference, announcements, and the donning of caps and gowns the class at last reached the climax of a long journey—graduation.

ENUMCLAW

In the Fall of 1949, White River High School was born, and with its birth, the class of '50 became the first graduating class of the new White River High.

Starting senior high with their first big success, "Cotton Carnival," the annual Sophomore hop of which JoAnn Strickland and Eddie Semanski were co-chairmen, the class of '50 soon made itself known even more by its assembly, "A Day with Radio."

Many girls turned out for "E" club in order to win their letter, and the class placed a number of members on Torch Honor Society.

In their Junior year the class of '50 started their social season with their Prom, "Song of the Islands." After that, they gave the first class assembly of the year, a minstrel show. In this, the Junior Sextet became widely known. The sextet consisted of Vernes Hanberg, Helen Hansen, Marilyn Ketchum, Dody Carpenter, Marilyn Halleck, and Barbara Hoffman.

The class of '50 again had stars in various fields. Dave Manson was a two year letter winner in football, Dick Lafromboise was a three sport letterman, and Dick Groff starred in track as a miler.

Setting an example for classes to come, and led by Betty Johnson, class president, the Seniors presented their ball, "One Touch of Heaven." The ballroom was a maze of blue and white crepe paper, gold and silver stars, and angels. A huge silver star decorated the refreshment stand; a beautiful angel playing a harp comprised the centerpiece and the bandstand was decorated to look like a golden stairway leading to heaven.

In sports, the class of '50 again had representatives. Dave Manson won his third year letter as center in football, while Dick Lafromboise, first-string quarterback, led the White River Hornets in their first season of football.

In this year's all-school play, the Senior class was amply represented by Keith Odell, Frank Osborn, Walt Bruhn, Jolene Evans, Betty Lou Shaneyfelt, Mickey Reise, Leon Hobbs, and Marilyn Ketchum. In the Spring, the class of '50 presented a memorable play, "Arsenic and Old Lace." In their last big production of the year, the Seniors presented their assembly, a review of song hits from 1900 to 1950.

Now, at last, the reign of the class of '50 has come to an end. They have left many mementoes of themselves and have taken memories of many happy times with them.

BUCKLEY

Throughout her entire school year, Donna Baker, Valedictorian, has been active in school organizations. As a Freshman, she was chairman of the Assembly; and in the Glee Club. She sang with the mixed chorus as a Sophomore, was dance chairman, and on the Bucklonian Staff. In her Junior year Donna was again dance chairman, and in the Glee Club, was chosen class Vice-President. As a senior she was Editor of the Bucklonian and was chairman of the Girls' Club Tolo Dance, assembly chairman, on the Student Council, and took part in dramatics; she was in Honor Society three years, and as a senior she was a Torch member. She won a letter in Girls' Letter Club every year of high school. Being Editor of the Bucklonian kept Donna busy throughout the year.

Because the difference in grades was so slight, Marita Deary and Charles Hodder were named Co-Salutatorians.

Charles has been participating in sports and school activities since he was a Freshman. Being a four year letter winner in football, basketball and baseball proves his ability as an athlete. As a Sophomore Charles was class president. He has been a Student Council officer; Vice-President in his Junior year, and as President in his Senior year. He is also a Torch Member of Honor Society.

Marita was a member of Honor Society for three years and as a Senior a Torch member. As a Junior she held the job as Junior Editor of the Annual. The beautiful decorations at the Girls' Club Tolo are credited to Marita, who was the decoration chairman. She was a three year letter winner in Girls' Club.

The Senior Class of 1950 at Buckley chose Fredric Maris as its speaker. Fred spent much of his time doing agricultural work. He was a Student Council member, since his class elected him as Senior Representative. Fred has been a stage and projection crew member for four years. In his Senior year he was student director of both organizations.

Doris Louise Olene was chosen by the Faculty to be a Commencement Speaker. She has been active in school life during her high school years. As a Freshman she was secretary of the class, in the Glee Club, and on the Annual and Bucklonian Staff; during her Sophomore year she took part in dramatics; skiing, tennis, and golf are among her favorite sports. Doris Louise as a Junior was in Mixed Chorus, the Glee Club and the Nonette. The Senior year found her in dramatics, the mixed chorus, student council, Sextette, Glee Club, and President of Honor Society. She was also a Torch member and a four-year letter winner in Girls' Athletics.

Since it has been the custom in Buckley for the Senior Class President to introduce the Commencement Speakers, Janet Hannus also was a speaker. Janet has participated in Girls' Club work and was a four-year letter winner in G. A. A. Janet was a member of the Honor Society for three years and was a member of Torch in her Senior year.
